

ODDO BHF Euro High Yield Bond

Luxembourg SICAV Subfund – UCITS

JANUARY 2022

Fund invested in European speculative high yield bonds

Fund launched in
JUNE 2000

€ 474m
under management

Why speculative High Yield Bonds funds are potentially attractive?

- High Yield bond funds give access to a diversified portfolio of High Yield Bonds
- High yield bonds are nevertheless exposed to a higher default risk compared to investment grade bonds. However, active management may help to reduce default risk and increase income potential by thorough credit selection

Our investment approach

- Bond selection based on fundamental credit analysis
- Consideration of ESG criteria in the investment process
- A best-in-universe approach completed by a Dialogue & Engagement process
- Team-based investment decisions
- Broad diversification with the objective of reducing credit risk
- Applying rigorous sell discipline in case of deterioration of credit quality
- Conservative approach - no default observed in the fund since inception

Our investment universe

- 2/3 minimum Euro denominated bonds with speculative high yield rating below BBB
- Non-Financial issuers
- Sectoral exclusion filter – Exclusion of industries such as
  - coal & production of coal-based energy

Ratings scale (ratings agency and/or internal analysis)

	Best quality	AAA	Investment Grade	Credit/ Default risk yield
	Quality	AA
	Average quality	A
	Average quality or below	BBB	High yield
Target of our investments	Average default risk	BB
	Significant default risk	B
	High default risk	CCC
	Payment default	D

Interests of Euro High Yield Bonds according to our analysis

- Historically Euro High Yield bond market has offered better return than the European Equity market with less volatility. However, past performances are not a reliable indicator of future performances and are not stable over time
- Euro High Yield bonds offer compelling yields compared to Euro denominated government bonds and other investment grade corporate bonds<sup>2</sup>
- High Yield bonds are characterized by relatively low interest rate sensitivity compared to other fixed income asset classes such as sovereign bonds or those rated investment grade
